Lecture on Study Techniques of Competitive Examinations

(Under Commerce Association): 29-09-2018

Report

The mission of Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur is to seek overall personality development of students through extra-curricular and co-curricular activities. Rural students who live in the midst of nature have a strong bond with the natural phenomena. The Commerce Association provides as a forum for students to learn about the present business world, diverse trade activities, and corporate difficulties. It gives students a chance to show off their skills in a variety of business-related events while also helping them improve their analytical and decision-making abilities. They are able to excel in teamwork and creative undertakings as a result of these exercises.

In the year 2018-19, Commerce Association was inaugurated on 29th September by the hand of Mr. Santosh Borde, Borde's Career Academy, Aurangabad and in the presence of Principal Dr. U. V. Panchal. In his inaugural speech, Mr. Santosh Borde talked on "Preparation of Competitive Exams". He focused on the various types of competitive exams particularly for commerce students, which books to use for the preparation of competitive exams, patterns of exams, how to prepare for interview, time planning etc. Finally he also cleared the queries of students. Some of the important points that he tips that he shared are as given below:

- Competitive exam needs systematic planning
- Motivation plays an important role in success
- Critical thinking is the bedrock
- The question papers of previous examinations also need attention
- Rural students can also succeed
- There are good reference books to refer
