Training and Placement Cell organized awareness generation programme for the UG and PG Students. This Programme was conducted in the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium on 9 August 2017.

The speaker was Dr. Dadasaheb Salunke, Coordinator, IQAC. In the first part of his lecture, he said that English communication is the foundation for all career avenues today. He advised that listening skill matters in order to improve the speaking skills. He suggested important websites for online practice. He also said that there is a list of FAQs and they have to work on it. He also said that students should form groups and discuss the developments happening in different domains of life. It develops their constructive views, arguments and approach to the problems. He explained the requirement and importance of doing certification courses in order to increase the possibility of being placed. He also told that soft skills are important in the current industry requirements. He acquainted the participants with the various entrance examinations for PG admissions in reputed institutions and also talked about the patterns of the examinations. At the end of the programme he also answered the questions raised by a few students. 95 students participated enthusiastically in the interaction.
