REPORT

Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur observed the 'Consumer Awareness Fortnight' and organized a one day workshop on 'Consumer Awareness' on 05-01-2019. It was organized by the Department of Commerce with NSS and NCC.

Session I - Consumer Protection Act: Shri Damodar Parikh, Vice President, All India Consumer Forum, Aurangabad Province, delivered a lecture on 'Consumer Protection Act 1986'. In his lecture he explained various provisions under the Act which safeguards the rights of the consumers. He said that over the years, the Act has gained importance as the awareness of the consumer rights is increasing in Indian society. He also said that being consumers people are ignorant of the procedure of buying goods and services. It is important that while making a big deal or bid, the consumers have to know about the vendor, its credibility etc. It is also important that we should obtain the bill or receipt. But in order to buy goods and services consumers often neglect these formalities and then suffer.

Session II –National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC): Dr. U. V. Panchal in his presidential address spoke on NCDRC. He said that this forum was set up in 1988 under the Consumer Protection Act of 1986. It has its office in New Delhi. It entertains the appeal cases by aggrieved people from the states and URTs of India. It is headed a sitting or a retired Supreme Court Judge. After NCRDC, there is the Supreme Court where the aggrieved consumers can appeal. In his concluding remark, he said that vigilance is the best way to prevent the problems that we face being consumers. He also explained the methods of identifying the food adulteration. Dr. K. P. Bholane proposed the vote of thanks.
