REPORT

Department of Commerce organized a guest lecture on 'Career Opportunities in Banking'. Mr. Ramesh Hingu (Director, SBI Learning Centre, and Aurangabad) delivered guest lecture on 24th February 2020. Prof. Ravindra Dhanwate welcomed the speaker. In this lecture he guided students on career attitude, aptitude and career selection in Banking. Dr. K. P. Bholane, Head, Department of Commerce, welcomed the resource person and also introduced him to the participants.

Mr. Hingu informed that there are opportunities for students in banking sector. The proliferation of banks in India offers huge opportunities to students. There are two types of opportunities available: clerks and probationary officers. For both the posts examinations are conducted by IBPS. He informed that there is scope for young people to rise to the higher positions in banks. Banks give students opportunities to serve the society. While working in a bank, we come in direct contact with the people. You get an opportunity to know the real India.

He explained the syllabus of the exam and insisted the students to consider it a career. The Prelim Exam carries 100 marks and has components like English language, Numerical ability, reasoning ability. The main exam have components like reasoning and computer aptitude, English language, data analysis and interpretation, general, economy/banking awareness etc. It carries 200 marks. Mr. Ravindra Dhanwate, Assistant Professor, Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur, proposed the vote of thanks.
