In the first session, Mrs. Donlan Roy, veteran Hindi poetess, presented her views with regard to the creative process and the qualities required to be a writer. She said that to be a writer we need to cultivate a penetrating vision. Very often the things and events happening around us go unnoticed. For a writer, however, these small events serve as a stuff. She said that to be a writer students must read books written by great writers. These masterpieces help you develop your own style. You need to be sensitive to whatever is happening around you. She also recited her poem entitled 'Roti'.

In the second session, Mr. Rajendra Gahal, veteran Marathi writer, started his lecture with a story from his book. He said that he had an intense desire to be a writer from his school days. He still remembers the beautiful lessons and stories from his language books. He also told the students that he had won a prize for his story in school and that inspired him to write more. He presented his story 'Khichadi' and kept the students entertaining for a couple of hours. He also explained them as to how to select a theme, create plot, develop character, add conflict and maintain point of view etc.

Later, in the third session, students were given 20 minutes time to write a poem or any story and submit it to the guest. 37 students wrote poems and stories. 06 of them presented them on the stage. Meanwhile, the resource persons examined the manuscripts and suggested the changes. They also congratulated them for their initiative. At the end Dr. B. R. Dhapase proposed the vote of thanks.
