Report

Literary Association and Department of English jointly organized 'English Handwriting Competition' for the students on 31-12-2021. The purpose of the competition was to encourage students write legible handwriting. As calligraphy skill assumes importance in student life, the handwriting competition was organized for the students on 31/12/2021.

It was held in Hall. No. 09 of Senior College Building. The medium of the competition were English. The main objective of this competition was make student realize that even in the world of computer and mobile enabled voiced typing, the basic writing skill has its own importance. In order to develop the motor skill and confidence, handwriting exercise matters. Legible handwriting is appreciated by all and it was an opportunity to display their writing skill. When we write something on a sheet of paper, our brain captures the letters and words in a systematic way and writing helps deepening our sense of comprehension. In all 65 students participated in this competition.
