Staff Academy

Organised a session of Lt. S.A. Dokhe Department of Chemistry, on a topic "Avenues in the Armed Forces"

28th July, 2018

Report

Staff Academy organised a lecture of Lt. Shrikant Dokhe on a topic which is related to the burning issues of our country. The Topic was "Avenues in Armed Forces." In the beginning he was welcomed by Mr. Vishwanath Dokhe, he also congratulated him for his successful completion of the hardest Training of Army at Kamthi. As he is part of military, he knew the job opportunities in the armed forces. In his lecture he shared his experiences at Kamthi. He also pointed out that all army people do not work at the borders. It depends on the situation. A career in defence forces promises one of the most prestigious and respected positions in the country. Youngsters who aspire to choose a career of excitement, adventure, and challenges can find no better place than defence to meet all their professional expectations. The Indian Armed Forces are the military forces of India which consist of four professional uniformed services: The Indian Army, Indian Air Force, Indian Navy and Indian Coast Guard. The various paramilitary organisations and various inter-service institutions also help the Indian Armed Forces. The Ministry of Defence is responsible for the management of armed forces in India.

The Indian Armed Forces comprise of three divisions – Indian Army, Indian Navy, and the Indian Air Force. Our borders are preserved by an army working every moment to make it what it is today. They shield the nation and ensure that everyone is living well with no atrocities to be faced."– Yes, this is what a career in Defence Services looks like. A career of the noble mission, which puts service before self. This is a zone of selflessness of unsung heroes of the nation working behind the scenes day in and day out.

There are various aspects to the Defence Services. The first and most commonly known options are uniformed services. These are categorized into four types, namely Indian Army, Indian Air force, Indian Navy and Indian Coast Guard. Each discipline mentioned above is a long subject in itself. Apart from that, there are other career options in defence services such as Central Armed Police Forces (CRPF), National Security Guard (NSG).

and Inter service institutions such as NDA, NCC, DSSC, Border Roads Organization, Institute for Defence Studies and Analysis, and many more.

The Ministry of Defence is a pivotal body which looks into important matters related to armed forces in India. Also, apart from these frontline career options, there are backend options which work in tandem with each other for the smooth working of these systems.

There are various aspects to careers in defence services in India. Interested students must always keep account of nooks and crannies of these aspects. The article given below discusses each type of career option, various indirect Defence career options and more important points in detail.
