REPORT

National Cadet Corps, Department of Political Science and Taluka Vidhi Seva Samiti, Vaijapur jointly organized rally for free legal aid scheme in the Vaijapur city. The aims of this rally were to enlighten the people about law and to increase the awareness among the citizens about social issues like save girl child, dowry prohibition, justice for all, plant trees save trees, child education etc. The rally was organized to mark the 75th years of independence and birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

On the rally day, NCC cadets, students of Political Science, lawyers and school students assembled in Vaijapur court premise. Hon. D. M. Aher and Hon. M. Mohiuddin, Judge, Vaijapur Court, garlanded the portrait of Mahatma Gandhi and explained the aim of this rally in their introductory speech. Shri. D. M. Aher said that youth have collective responsibility towards the society and they can generate awareness among the citizens about social issues like save girl child, dowry prohibition, justice for all, plant trees save trees, child education etc. Later Shri. M. Mohiuddin flagged off the rally. NCC cadets held placards in their hand that show slogans to create awareness among people about social issues.

The rally marched through the Main Road, Market Square, Depot Road, Maharana Pratap Road and finally arrived at court premise. Hon. S. R. Shinde guided the students and congratulated them for their service to the society. He explained the importance of free legal aid scheme to make justice accessible to the common people, especially to the poor. He also gave information about various welfare schemes. Cap. Dokhe proposed the vote of thanks. Total 104 students were participated.
