REPORT

Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya organized a 'Mahaswachhata Abhiyan' in collaboration with Municipal Council, Vaijaur on 15/12/2017. It was a part of the 'My City-Clean City' drive undertaken by the Government of Maharashtra. The Municipal Council sought the participation of educational institutes in the drive and Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, was in the forefront to respond to the appeal. The personnel from the Municipal Corporation and the teachers and students from Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, conducted a one day cleanliness drive.

Dr. Sandipan Sanap, Deputy Collector, Vaijapur, inaugurated the 'Abhiyan' and said that it is the moral responsibility of each and every citizen in this city to keep the city clean. He further said that time has come to understand the method of litter segregation. He expressed his happiness over the initiative of the College in making the campus green and clean. Mr. Aniruddha Nandedkar, Police Inspector also participated in the mission with his staff. He said that the areas adjacent to the college are crucial venues because there is a water reservoir that supplies water to the city.

Mr. Vitthal Dake, Chief Offficer, Municipal Council, Vaijapur, was also present. He said that Vaijapur city has accelerated its pace in order to bag the prizes in this year's Swachhata Contest. He shared the Swachhata App with the students and teachers asked them to download it and send photographs of litter so that they could clear it immediately. The teachers and students cleaned the polythene bags lying around the compound wall adjacent to the state highway. They also cleaned the eastern part of the campus and cleared the grass and the debris lying there. Swachhata Ambassador, Shri. Dhondiram Rajput, gave 'Swachhata Pledge' to the students and teachers on this occasion. Refreshment was also served to all the participants. 530 students and teachers participated in this activity. Dr. K. P. Bholane proposed the vote of thanks.
