REPORT

The NSS and NCC of Vinayakrao Patil celebrated the Surgical Strike Day by organizing a distinct activity 29 September 2018. We invited two of our gallant soldiers serving in the Indian Army: Nitin Rothe and Sandeep Avhale. They also happen to be the former NSS volunteers and NCC cadets. The PO Dr. K. P. Bholane gave a floral welcome to both the soldiers and introduced them to the students. Dr. K. P. Bholane, said that the Uri terror attack on our security forces was a coward attempt to damp our morale. However, on 29 September 2016, the Indian Army launched a devastating attack across the LoC and eliminated the terrorist launch pads and training centres. Therefore, we are celebrating the Surgical Strike Day.

In the first session, Mr. Nitin Rothe said that there is a special entry provision to NCC cadets. There is no need to pass the UPSC examination. Any graduate aged between 19 and 25 can avail to this opportunity. Additionally, you must have served NCC (Sr. Division) for two years and obtained B grade in C certificate examination.

Similarly, any graduate can appear aged between 19 and 24 can take the Combined Defence

look forward to Officers Training Academy SSC Non Tech entry. This is done through the CDS examination.

In the second session, Mr. Swapnil Avhale, told the students about the Direct Entry Soldier opportunities. He said that if you are HSC pass and within the age limit of 17.6 and 21 you can definitely become a soldier in Indian Army. He explained the physical requirements like height, weight, chest and also talked about 1 Mile Run, Pull Ups, Balance, 9 Feet Ditch etc.

He added that the written exam consists of questions on IQ, Numerical Ability, GK and Current Affairs etc. It carries 100 marks and the passing marks is 32.

At the end of the lectures, there was a question and answer session. 10 students asked them about their work environment and daily routine etc. The resource persons answered them to their satisfaction. At last Dr. K. P. Bholane delivered the presidential remarks. 78 students participated in this workshop.
