REPORT

Dr. U. V. Panchal, Principal, Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur, enlightened the students with their social accountability while speaking on the topic 'What you can do for the society?' Sujeet Raybhan Dushing welcomed and introduced the resource person.

Dr. Panchal said that the volunteers who work in the communities know more about the social institutions. They know about the challenges and difficulties faced by the society. He said that the main objective of NSS is community service and character building. And both these concepts are interrelated. While students are taking education in a higher education, they should also know about the society. Generally, a student comes from a particular social, cultural or economic background, and so he represents that set of people. However, there are diverse societies around us. For example, in Vaijapur tehsil, we have economically well to do people, middle class people, poor people and again people living Below Poverty Line kind of life. There are farmers, peasants, artisans, professionals, traders etc. Similarly, people belonging to SC, ST, OBC, Minority categories also live around us. There are women and there are divyangans as well. There are literate and there are illiterate as well. What a diversity! This constitutes our society. Dr. Panchal added that a students has to understand that he has to deal with these people.

He added that under the banner of NSS, the college undertakes initiatives addressing issues like health, education, literacy, human rights, women rights, disaster management, awareness regarding superstitions, skill development etc. Students may feel that the communities benefit from these activities, but the students who carry out these tasks also benefit. Students get an opportunity to know about the lifestyle of the people, their traditions, aspirations, rituals etc. Students who aspire to become civil servants through MPSC and UPSC, must know about the society. Those who have exposure to these groups can easily qualify these exams, he said. Dr. Panchal called upon the students to maintain diary jotting down the day to day events, so that they could organize the material for writing a coherent account of the social life around them. He concluded that knowing more and more about the society is the beginning and end of all education. Geeta Sahebrao Dhattrak proposed the vote of thanks. Neha Subhash Hullale conducted the proceeding.
