Dr. Bhimrao Jadhav, Assistant Professor, Department Zoology, Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur, shared his views with regard to 'Personal Hygiene' on 30-12-2017. Kartiki Shivaji Gawali, B. Sc. III, welcomed and introduced the resource person. He said that in order to improve the standard of living, human beings have to cultivate some important personal habits: cleaning body every day, washing hands with soap before taking meals, brushing teeth twice a day, covering nose and mouth with handkerchief or tissue paper while coughing etc.

According to Dr. Jadhav, good hygienic practices are important they help us from spreading disease causing germs. He said that in the recent times the frequency of epidemics have broken out and therefore we have to be cautious. Viral diseases have become very common in modern times.

He also emphasized that the personal hygiene is the foundation of community hygiene. If we accomplish the target of personal hygiene automatically we will have a healthy India. He said that there are some social benefits too. When we keep our body clean, we can act with confidence in society and at workplace. Clean body and clothes make people around us cheerful.

Dr. Bhimrao Jadhav shared the findings of WHO with regard to personal hygiene. He said that even today 1.1 billion people worldwide do not have access to clean water. So 2.4 billion people die every year due to water-borne diseases. Children population is more vulnerable to this scourge. Mostly, these people belong to economically vulnerable. In rural areas the situation is worse. He said that today hygiene is not the top priority. WHO and World Bank is according top priority to clean and safe water in order to stop these deaths. Bharati Balnath Kadwe, B. Sc. II, proposed the vote of thanks. Radhakisan Sampat Theng, B. Com. II, conducted the proceeding.
