Lecture on 'Role of Youth in Eradication of Superstitions' by Mr. Sachin Thorat

27-12-2017

Report

Mr. Sachin Thorat, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur, delivered a lecture on 'Role of Youth in Eradication of Superstitions' on 27-12-2017. Arjun Prakash Jadhav, B. Sc. II, welcomed and introduced the resource person. Mr. Thorat counselled the students that superstitions are irrational beliefs that people blindly follow. In our society today, we come across people who believe in such practices. However, they never cross examine the scientific basis of these practices. There are people who say that it is bad to sweep and the floor and trim the nails after the sunset. In India, people believe that certain days are good and others are bad and so they wait for the good days to make a start. However, the great saint poet Kabir has said:

सार्तो दिन भगवान के, क्या मंगल क्या पीर

जिस दिन सोये देर तक, भूखा रहे फ़कीर

Similarly people believe that during the solar and lunar eclipses pregnant women should observe great care because they are more prone to danger during the eclipse hours. Some people avoid eating meals during the eclipse. They hold the view that the new moon day is a bad day because on that day the evil spirits wander freely and trouble the people. Similarly, they believe that some people know black art and so they can make you ill. In India people have been killed because the people thought that the person had black magic. In 21st century, people believe that women are witches. There is a belief that certain animals are good and others are bad.

He counselled the students that the Government of Maharashtra has passed the Maharashtra Prevention and Eradication of Human Sacrifice and other Inhuman, Evil and Aghori Practices and Black Magic Act, 2013 which prohibits such beliefs and there is a provision of fine and imprisonment. Being students, you must not believe in such things and also educate people in your family and your village about such malpractices. Nikhil Nana Gaware, B. Sc. I, proposed the vote of thanks. Bhagyashree Kishor Peherkar, B. Com. II, conducted the proceeding.
