

COURSE OUTCOMES SOCIOLOGY

B.A. SOCIOLOGY

Semester I

1. Introduction to Sociology 2. Individual and Society

CO 01: The students understand the origin of sociology and its scientific and professional importance.

CO 02: The students understand the basic concepts like, society, community, social group, culture, values, role and status etc.

CO 03: The students understand the agencies of socialization and social control.

CO 04: The students understand the structural, functional and conflict perspective.

Semester II

3. Introduction to Subfield of Sociology 4. Indian Social Composition

CO 01: The student understands the subfields of sociology: Psychology, Social Psychology, Cultural Anthropology etc.

CO 02: The student understands the Indian social compositions

CO 03: The students are able to understand the types of social control.

CO 04: The student understands the types social change.

Semester III

5. Problems of Rural India 6. Contemporary Urban Issues

CO 01: The students understand the major problems facing the rural society.

CO 02: The students understand the health problems of rural women.

CO 03: The student understands the rural problems and the social change within them.

Semester IV

7. Population in India 8. Sociology of Development

CO 01: The students are able to understand the concepts like, development, underdevelopment and sustainable development etc.

CO 02: The students understand the various approaches of development.

CO 03: The students are aware about the problems of Marathwada region.

CO 04: The students the population scenario of worldwide as well as Indian.

Semester V

9. Sociological Tradition 10. Introduction to Research Methodology & Research Project

CO 01: The student understands social thought and sociological theories, sociologists and their contribution.

CO 02: The student understands the concepts like, Positivism, Evolution, Suicide, Bureaucracy, Class and Class Conflict etc.

CO 03: The student develops the ability to apply sociological concepts and theories to the real life situations.

CO 04: The student understands the various perspectives in sociology. Sociological Tradition

Semester VI

Introduction to Research Methodology & Research Project, Urban sociology

CO 01: The student understands the process of social research and methods of data collection.

CO 02: The student understands report writing methods.

CO 03: The student understands the research method, process and data collection techniques.

CO 04: The students are able to understand how to write a research project.

CO 05: The students understand the process of data analysis.

CO 06: The students understand the scope and importance of urban sociology

CO 07: The students understand the various theories of urban sociology.

CO 08: The student understands the approaches of urban studies.

CO 09: The students are understood the urbanization and industrialization on Indian society.

CO 01:0: The students are aware about urban social problems.

MA SOCIOLOGY

MA I SEM I

Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology-I

CO 01: The students are able to understand the elements of sociological theory.

CO 02: Theoretical knowledge base of theory making.

CO 03: Compare various perspectives of sociology viz. functionalism, Marxism and new Marxism.

CO 04: Analyze the basic concepts in sociological theory viz. fact, theory, power, authority, conflict,

CO 05: Evaluate key concepts in sociological theory.

CO 06: Apply theoretical knowledge in social research.

Methodology of Sociological Research

CO 01: Describe principles and purpose of social research.

CO 02: Understand the various terms regarding research viz, methodology, methods, techniques and paradigms. Various administrative structures and their role

CO 03: The students are able to understand the social reality and approach of research.

- CO 04: The students are able to check the reliability and validity of collected data.
- CO 05: Students are able to utilize knowledge related to social issues in day to day life.
- CO 06: evaluate new trends and structures in social research

Elective Optional Papers: Elective Group A

Rural Society in India -1

- CO 01: Rephrase ideological foundations of rural society.
- CO 02: Identify influential factors of India's Foreign Policy
- CO 03: Analyze India's relations with other countries and its implications
- CO 04: Examine relevance of Foreign Policy of India
- CO 05: Create awareness about contemporary security challenges

Elective Group B

Contemporary Social Problems in India-1

- CO 01: Explain socio political background of social problems.
- CO 02: Interpret ideas of deviant behavior.
- CO 03: Analyze ideological perspectives of value conflict.
- CO 04: Describe importance of equality like caste and gender.
- CO 05: Understand the effects of ecological degradation.

MA I SEM II

Core/Compulsory Papers:

Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology-II

- CO 01: Explain meaning and theories of interactionism and symbolic interactionism.
- CO 02: About social behaviorism and self, social self.
- CO 03: Understand phenomenology and ethnomethodology.
- CO 04: Students are able to understand the meaning of post structuralism and post modernism.
- CO 05: The students are aware about the Agency and structure of integration.

Methods of Social Research and Statistics

- CO 01: Define and describe meaning, nature and scope of quantitative research.
- CO 02: Classify and compare various approaches of social research.
- CO 03: Analyze and assess various research methods.
- CO 04: Students are aware about ground theory.

Elective Optional Papers: Elective Group A

Rural Society in India-II

CO 01: Understand the basic social institutions of rural society viz, caste, family, marriage and religion etc.

CO 02: Aware about baluta system.

CO 03: Aware about bhoodan movement.

CO 04: analyze role of government in bhoodan movement.

CO 05: Aware about rural social problem like poverty, casteism, alcoholism.

Elective Group B

Contemporary Social Problems in India-II

CO 01: Understand the difference between crime and delinquency.

CO 02: explain nature & development of various forces in social disorganization.

CO 03: Outline theoretical framework of nation building.

CO 04: Understand the social vicious viz. prostitution, beggary gambling etc.

CO 05: evaluate the issues and trends in sex offence.

MA II SEM III

Group-I Classical Sociological Tradition: Marx and Durkheim (Compulsory)

CO 01: Explain meaning, nature & scope of sociological theories.

CO 02: Analyze various currents in origin of sociological thought.

CO 03: Understand the socio-economic impact of industrial revolution.

CO 04: Aware about dialectical and historical materialism.

CO 05: create awareness about issues of class conflict.

Sociology of Development Compulsory

CO 01: Explain the meaning & various approaches of development

CO 02: Compare various models of development and its impact on society.

CO 03: Compare governmental role and functions in holistic development of country.

CO 04: Elaborate recent trends in development.

CO 05: Aware about development related theories.

Elective Group- A and B Social Demography -1 Optional

- CO 01: Aware about nature of Indian population.
- CO 02: Aware about the processes of population census.
- CO 03: Analyze concepts of migration, mortality and fertility.
- CO 04: Interpret future of international migration.
- CO 05: Compile the concepts and theories of demography.

Criminology-1      Optional

- CO 01: Explain the conceptual approaches of crime.
- CO 02: Compare the various theories of crime.
- CO 03: Explain organization & administration processes of criminals.
- CO 04: Discover structure of juvenile court and its functionaries.
- CO 05: Apply knowledge related crime in day to day administrative working

MA II SEM IV

Group-I

Classical Sociological Tradition: Weber, Pareto, Colley and Mead      Compulsory

- CO 01: The student understands social thought and sociological theories, sociologists and their contribution.
- CO 02: The student understands the concepts like, Power, Social Action, Authority, Bureaucracy, Class and Class Conflict etc.
- CO 03: The student develops the ability to apply sociological concepts and theories to the real life situations.
- CO 04: The student understands the various perspectives in sociology.

Development-An Indian Experience      Compulsory

- CO 01: Explain the meaning & various issues in displacement and rehabilitation.
- CO 02: Compare various models of development and its impact on society.
- CO 03: Compare governmental role and functions in holistic development of country.
- CO 04: Elaborate recent trends in development of Marathwada region.
- CO 05: Aware about developmental efforts of Indian government.

Elective Group- A and B

Social Demography -II      Optional

- CO 01: Aware about theories of population growth.
- CO 02: Compare between various theories of population growth.
- CO 03: Analyze concepts of population projection and environmental pollution.

CO 04: Interpret future of international migration.

CO 05: Compile the concepts and population policy of India government.

Criminology -II      Optional

CO 01: Explain the conceptual approaches of crime.

CO 02: Compare the various theories of crime.

CO 03: Explain organization & administration processes of criminals.

CO 04: Discover structure of juvenile court and its functionaries.

CO 05: Apply knowledge related crime in day to day administrative working