INDEPENDENCE DAY 15-08-2016

Lecture by Dr. S. B. Munde on 'Let's Safeguard Our Freedom'.

REPORT

On 15 August 2016 was the day when the entire Vinayakrao Patil Mahavidyalaya family assembled in front of the Administrative Building to commemorate the Independence Day. At 07:50 am Shri. Kashinath Gaikwad, Member, LGC, unfurl the Tricolour. All sang the national anthem. NCC cadets carried out the March Past, chanting Bharat Mata Ki Jai and Vande Mataram. Students of Deogiri Global Academy, delivered speeches highlighting the sacrifices of the freedom fighters.

On this occasion, Dr. S. B. Munde, Principal, delivered a lecture on 'Let's Safeguard Our Freedom'. He said that the freedom was not granted to India by the British, rather it was attained by the Indians. He narrated the 150 years of struggle for freedom referring to foundation of INS, emergence of nationalism, Congress sessions, awakening brought about by the Press, Lok. Tilak's vision, Gandhi Era with its Satyagraha etc. He further said that as we have attained the freedom by sacrifice and hard work, it is our duty to safeguard it. He said that today in many parts of the world democracy is in danger. Here in India, we have a very powerful decentralized governance. Still we have to be very alert. We ought to be vigilant. Shri. Kashinath Gaikwad gave best wishes to all the attendees. He said that the best way to serve the nation is to be humble and sincere. Captain. Jawahar Kothari, proposed the vote of Thanks.
