REPORT

Department of Political Science series on “An Introduction to Important Laws” in collaboration with college Internal Quality Assurance Cell. The aim of this activity was to sensitize the students about the important laws. Mr. Rahul Pardeshi welcomed the resource person and stated the objectives of the lecture series.

On 31st December, 2021. Prof. A. R. Kasbe, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, delivered lecture on “The Right to Freedom of Speech and expression” (Article -19) under the Indian Constitution. At the outset he asked the students questions: what do you know about the fundamental rights, which articles in the Constitution state the fundamental rights, is right to freedom of speech and expression a fundamental right, can we really speak whatever we feel to, what is the importance of this right in democracy etc.

While putting the theme into context, Prof. A. R. Kasbe said that the right to freedom of speech and expression is necessary in a democratic setup. He cited some news published in the newspaper. He illustrated that article 19 is the weapon gifted to Indian citizens by our Constitution.

He said that in India people can participate in the democratic process by expressing their views and opinions. Sometimes, the views may not be in commensurate with the ideology of the ruling parties or their policies. But the common man can voice his grievance. People stage protest and chant slogans criticize the Govt. policies. The constitution assures them safety. Newspapers also express views in their news. This is a kind of generating awareness in the masses. He added that sometimes the TV channels and newspapers are also targeted by some elements as they are critical of them.
